Adjectives: basic rules

- Before the noun
- After to be
- The same for singular/plural

A cheerful baby

The cute baby is happy

Adjective order

The correct structure in a sentence

It is very common to use more than one adjective to describe something.

The first general rule to keep in mind is:

Opinion before fact: She bought a beautiful red dress.

You might think the dress is beautiful, but I might not. It's an opinion.

The dress is definitely red though.

Adjectives

Order & Structure

	OPINION	SIZE	AGE	SHAPE	COLOUR	ORIGIN	MATERIAL	PURPOSE*	NOUN
an	adorable		2-year old			Colombian			girl
an		oversized			tan		leather		suitcase
a			new	round			wooden	mixing	bowl

Technical difficulties

How to resolve different issues

It is important to be ready to deal with technical problems and clarify information. One way to do this is to use closed questions and alternative choice questions.

A closed question is effective as the only answer that is required is 'yes' or 'no'. Alternative choice questions provide 2 choices connected with 'or'.

For example, do you prefer Thursday or Friday? You should answer by repeating the choice you agree with.

This questioning technique is useful when you need to clarify important information or reach a decision.

Problems:

Technical issues

- You're breaking up. I don't think the coverage is very good here.
- There were some dropouts just then. Can you repeat that please?
- You're breaking up! Could you please repeat that?
- Please could you speak up, I can't really hear you?

Remember that we never say "~~Can you repeat me~~"

Problems

Technical issues

- A white corded telephone handset is mounted on a light-colored wall. The handset has a speaker, a microphone, and a numeric keypad. The number '+19 222' is printed on the top left of the handset. A coiled cord extends from the bottom of the handset.
- Sorry, I didn't catch that. Could you repeat what you said?
 - Sorry, what was the name?
 - This line is terrible. What was that last number?

Problems

Technical issues

- Can we begin? Have we resolved all of the technical issues?
- Could you get a little closer to the microphone? It's a bit difficult to hear you.
- Please move slightly away from the microphone because the sound gets distorted and there is a lot of static.

I'm afraid (that) Brian can't be with us today.
Lilah Demai will be with us shortly.
Sorry but Carlos is in another meeting and can't be here.
If at all possible, could we wait an extra ten minutes?
We'll get in touch with you as soon as the system is up

Example Conversation 1

Example Conversation

Making an appointment

- Michelle: Mr Hibberd's office!
- Peter: Hello, can I speak to Brian Hibberd, please?
- Michelle: I'm afraid he's in a meeting until lunchtime. Can I take a message?
- Peter: Well, I'd like to arrange an appointment to see him, please. It's Peter Jefferson here.
- Michelle: Could you hold on for a minute, Mr Jefferson. I'll just look in the diary. So when's convenient for you?
- Peter: Sometime next week if possible. I gather he's away the following week.

Example Conversation

Making an appointment

- Michelle: Yes, that's right, he's on holiday for a fortnight.
- Peter: Well, I need to see him before he goes away. So would next Wednesday be okay?
- Michelle: Wednesday... let me see . He's out of the office all morning. But he's free in the afternoon, after about three.
- Peter: Three o'clock is difficult. But I could make it after four.
- Michelle: So shall we say 4.15 next Wednesday, in Mr Hibberd's office?
- Peter: Yes, that sounds fine. Thanks very much.
- Michelle: Okay, then. Bye.

Making travel arrangements

Useful expressions

Example Conversation 2

Example Conversation

Making travel arrangements

Dolores: Hello! Dolores speaking...

Tim: Ah yes, hello. I'd like to enquire about flights to Hong Kong from Kennedy Airport in New York, please. I'm off to a conference at the end of the month - Thursday 22nd until Tuesday 27th. Could you tell me about the flight availability and prices?

Dolores: Certainly. Do you want to go economy, business or first class?

Tim: Well, I'd like to go first class, but unfortunately I'll have to go economy - company rules, you see.

Dolores: Yes, sure, I understand. How many of you will be travelling?

Tim: Ah, it's just me.

Example Conversation

Making travel arrangements

- Dolores: Okay, so that's one seat, economy ... New York - Kennedy to Hong Kong Airport.
- Tim: And how much will that be?
- Dolores: Let me see ... to qualify for the discount rate, you need to stay over a Saturday, which you are doing ... Yes, that'll be $830.
- Tim: Right, and does that include airport tax?
- Dolores: No, tax is another $70 on top of that.
- Tim: Okay. Can I book that, then?
- Dolores: Certainly.

Example Conversation

Making travel arrangements

- Dolores: Can I help you with anything else?
- Tim: Yes, I'd like to book a hotel room too, for the full five nights. Could you check if the Regency Hotel has any rooms free?
- Dolores: Yes, they do.
- Tim: And is there a discount rate for conference delegates?
- Dolores: Yes, there is. I think it's 10% but I can check that for you.
- Tim: Okay, do you mind if I book it provisionally for now and I'll call you back later to confirm? I just need to check one or two details.
